

2010 Fall Product Sale Pathway Passes

What is a Pathway Pass?

A Pathway Pass is a Girl Incentive earned during a Girl Scouts of North East Ohio Product Sale. Pathway Pass values and what they can be used for are reviewed annually and publicized prior to each GSNEO Product Sale. Pathway Pass usage can and may differ with each Product Sale.

When do 2010 Fall Product Pathway Passes expire?

Pathway Passes from the 2010 Fall Product sale expire September 30, 2011.

How can Fall Product Pathway Pass be used?

A 2010 Fall Product Pathway Pass can be used as payment to register for:

- Programs designated by the Pathway Pass Flag () in GSNEO communications including, but not limited to the Faces & Places Program and Training Guides, Camp Guides, supplemental flyers, mailers, E-News, gsneo.org.
- Troop Camping scheduled by September 30, 2011.

A Pathway Pass cannot be used to pay for programs that are not designated with the Pathway Pass Flag, Service Unit programs, Day Camp, Annual or Lifetime memberships, purchases at GSNEO retail locations or through the online shop. A Pathway Pass is not redeemable for cash and change will not be given.

How will Pathway Passes be issued?

Pathway Passes earned during the 2010 Fall Product Sale will be mailed to girls at their home addresses, to the attention of the Parent/Guardian, in January of 2011.

How many Pathway Passes can be earned?

During the 2010 Fall Product Sale girls can earn up to $86 in Pathway Passes, if selected from the incentive choices.

2010 - 2011 Cookie Sale Pathway Passes

What is a Pathway Pass?

A Pathway Pass is a Girl Incentive earned during a Girl Scouts of North East Ohio Product Sale. Pathway Pass values and what they can be used for are reviewed annually and publicized prior to each GSNEO Product Sale. Pathway Pass usage can and may differ with each Product Sale.

How can a Cookie Sale Pathway Pass be used?

A 2010 - 2011 Cookie Sale Pathway Pass can be used as payment to register for:

- Programs designated by the Pathway Pass Flag (🚩) in GSNEO communications including, but not limited to the Faces & Places Program and Training Guides, Camp Guides, supplemental flyers, mailers, E-News, gsneo.org.

A Pathway Pass cannot be used to pay for programs that are not designated with the Pathway Pass Flag, Service Unit programs, Day Camp, Annual or Lifetime memberships, purchases at GSNEO retail locations or through the online shop. A Pathway Pass is not redeemable for cash and change will not be given.

When do 2011 Cookie Sale Pathway Passes Expire?

December 15, 2011.

How many Pathway Passes can be earned?

During the 2010-2011 Cookie Sale girls can earn up to $200 in Pathway Passes in combination with other incentive items.

How will Pathway Passes be issued?

Pathway Passes earned during the 2010 - 2011 Cookie Sale will be issued electronically.

- To access the passes earned by their Girl Scout(s), parents/guardians have to create an online user profile at gsneo.org. Girl Scouts 13 and over may create a profile themselves. All profiles must be completed by March 15, 2011.
- The Pathway Pass codes will be uploaded to the online profile on gsneo.org and linked to individual Girl Scouts.
- Instructions for parents/guardians on creating their online profile and redeeming their Pathway Passes will be forthcoming.

