

The 5 Skills

Shaping A Girl's Future

■ GOAL SETTING ■ DECISION MAKING

■ BUSINESS ETHICS ■ PEOPLE SKILLS ■ MONEY MANAGEMENT

Why do these skills matter? Because when a Girl Scout has learned these skills, she'll be poised for success in her career. Think about it: When employers interview job candidates, they all look for the same things whether at a bank, high-tech company, university, hospital, publishing house, car dealership, account firm or even the local pet store! They want:

- Someone who can set goals and meet deadlines - Blowing a deadline can mean blowing a deal!
- Someone who works well with others - Who wants to deal with strife and complaining in the workplace? Not the boss!
- Someone who understands customers - It doesn't matter whether the "customers" are hospital patients, TV viewers, or other companies -- every business has to know its customers and what they want.
- Some who can influence others - This doesn't just mean selling a product. Employers want people who can sell ideas, pitch projects and convince other employees to help out.
- Someone who is honest, trustworthy and reliable - Kind of goes without saying -- or it should!
