

CAMP SUGARBUSH

Kinsman, Ohio

Camp Sugarbush is located in Kinsman, Ohio and covers almost 200 acres of charming scenery. Camp facilities include a dining hall, an infirmary, flush toilets, hot showers, swimming pool, small lake, archery range, game fields and an observatory. Housing units include covered wagons, permatents and pavilions which all include cots and mattresses. Each unit has its own pavilion, latrine and running water.

HOW TO CHECK IN AT CAMP SUGARBUSH

Check in with the Property Manager at his house upon your arrival. Give the Property Manager a list of names in your group along with leaders names, and identify any known early departures and late arrivals with times, if possible. Park vehicles in designated area. Use the utility carts in the parking lot to facilitate transporting gear to the campsite. The adult in charge may attain special permission from the Property Manager to drive to the site to unload heavy items. The car must then be returned to the parking area. Only one vehicle per group may be parked by the parking lot near the lodge for emergency use only. No vehicles are allowed tent units.
