Trading Post

Camp Ledgewood & Camp Timberlane

Come prepared to enjoy all that the Trading Post has to offer!

What is the purpose of the Trading Post?

The Trading Post is offered to your camper to enhance her camp experience by providing merchandise to create lasting memories of her time at Girl Scout camp.

When will my camper visit the Trading Post?

The Trading Post will be open one day for Overnight Camp and CORE camp. Camp Timberlane will be open on Tuesdays and the Trading Post at Camp Ledgewood will be open on Wednesdays, unless it is a short week, then we will be open on Tuesday. Additional hours will be posted when possible.

Overnight campers and family camp programs will be offered time with their camp group to visit the Trading Post.

How will my camper pay for Trading Post merchandise?

At camp check-in, caregivers can create a cash account for their camper with retail staff. A premarked envelope will be provided to the caregiver to put your camper's money in. This envelope is then held at the camp office until their scheduled Trading Post visit. Any leftover money will be sent home with the camper at check-out.

What is normally spent by a camper at the Trading Post?

A camper spends about $15-$35 per week. But the average amount given to a camper for their Trading Post is $25.

Is Trading Post money required?

No, it is not mandatory. Notably, we do find that the girls love to be able to purchase a keepsake from the Trading Post.

Our camp store, called the Trading Post, is one of the highlights of camp! Girls look forward to purchasing keepsake camp items.
