

Service Unit Data Champion

When you see the whole, your part makes sense.

The Service Unit Data Champion helps ensure accurate, up-to-date membership information for all girls and adults in the Service Unit. This role serves as the Service Unit's primary data resource, providing information that helps volunteers make informed decisions, plan recognition and incentive efforts, identify membership trends, and connect girls with available troop opportunities. By maintaining accurate records, supporting registration and renewal processes, and sharing meaningful membership data, the Service Unit Data Champion helps troops, volunteers, and GSNEO staff keep girls connected, supported, and engaged in Girl Scouting.

Alone we can do so little; together we can do so much!

This role is supported by the Service Unit Director (SUD), Community Support Coordinator (CSC), Community Support Specialist (CSS), Membership Data and Systems Manager and other GSNEO staff as needed.

Know your role. Rock your role.

- ♦ Pull Looker reports, review data for accuracy and completeness, and share information with Service Unit members.
- ♦ Maintain accurate membership, troop, and volunteer records, including school assignments, contact information, and leadership positions.
- ♦ Update membership information after recruitment events and verify membership records with troop/volunteer data.
- ♦ Work with troop leaders to update member, troop, and leadership information, including troop changes and renewals.
- ♦ Support registration and troop maintenance by providing guidance, resources, and assistance with leadership requirements, including ensuring troops have the required adult leadership.
- ♦ Support council initiatives, like Spring Renewal, the Girl Scout Cookie Program, and onboarding volunteers.
- ♦ Provide information regarding local Juliettes, new volunteers, onboarding efforts, and volunteer training completion to Service Team Members
- ♦ Work collaboratively with Service Unit volunteers and GSNEO staff to support local council goals and initiatives.
- ♦ Attend occasional Service Unit meetings, council meetings, and training opportunities.

Grow your skills, grow your future.
