Girl Scouts Celebrate Faith!

“The motivating force in Girl Scouting is spiritual.”

—Preamble, Constitution of Girl Scouts of the USA

Making our communities—and the world—a better place. Supporting girls. Building compassionate leaders. At the heart of Girl Scouting are many of the same values most faiths hold.

Girl Scout Sabbath celebrates the powerful ties between Girl Scouting and faith and, on this day, Girl Scouts across the country will honor those shared beliefs as they pledge to serve God and help others. Girls are encouraged to connect their faith to the Girl Scout Promise—“On my honor, I will try to serve God”—and can earn religious recognitions in the process.

Join us on March 13–14, 2020, to celebrate the Girl Scouts and Girl Scout volunteers in your congregation who give their time and talents in the service of others.

GIRL SCOUT PROMISE
On my honor, I will try:
To serve God and my country,
To help people at all times,
And to live by the
Girl Scout Law.
